

Where can you get your boating license in Dijon?

In Dijon, it is possible to obtain a boating license through state-approved training schools. The program includes both theoretical courses and practical sessions on the water, helping candidates prepare for the official exams.

All About Getting a Boat License

Planning to buy a boat to explore France through its canals but don't have a boat license yet? No worries! We explain everything you need to know in this article.