Fall under the timeless charm of this magnificent Dutch sailing ship, built in 1899 and listed as a Maritime and River Heritage Site. Arriving in France via the canals in 2010, she has gracefully crossed Europe and retained her authentic soul. At sea, her incomparable steadiness and stability offer a unique and reassuring sailing experience. But its real strength lies in its versatility, being perfectly suited to canal navigation. The interior layout offers a comfortable and practical living space. This boat features one cabin and 5 berths, including a double bed at the bow, a single bunk, and a convertible bench in the salon that can accommodate up to 4 people. In addition, numerous cupboards, wardrobes, and clever storage solutions optimize the space on board. The kitchen is fully functional and includes a gas stove, an oven, and a refrigerator. As for the bathroom, it is equipped with a shower, a sink, and an electric toilet. Thus, this motor sailer combines conviviality, autonomy, and comfort for your river adventures.

Regarding maintenance and upgrades, the following work was completed at the end of October 2025: full painting and antifouling, anode replacement, stainless steel steering path wiring, as well as the installation of a drawer-style compression fridge and replacement of the horn.

This sailboat for sale also participated in the prestigious Escale à Sète classic sailing gathering, highlighting its historical and aesthetic appeal.
