Discover this beautiful houseboat, 9.30 metres long and 3.60 metres wide, built in 1985. The Jeanneau Eau Claire 9.30 is a riverboat renowned for its exceptional liveability and ease of navigation. Designed specifically for inland waterways — canals, rivers and lakes — it stands out for its shallow draught and functional layout. This makes it ideal for cruises with family or friends, even over long periods.

Inside, the well-designed layout offers a cabin, a convertible saloon providing additional sleeping space, and a bright and comfortable living area. In addition, the fully equipped galley allows you to live on board in complete autonomy. The boat also has a shower and toilet.

Outside, there is a beautiful deck and a practical wheelhouse for manoeuvring, providing a pleasant space to relax, both at the quayside and while sailing.

In terms of navigation equipment, the boat is equipped with a VHF radio.

In short, the Jeanneau Eau Claire 9.30 is robust, easy to manoeuvre and very well designed, making it an excellent choice for discovering river cruising in the best possible conditions.
