SCAND BOAT ATLANTIC 32 “ROUSLAN 1”

The Scand 32 Atlantic is a cabin cruiser built by the renowned Norwegian shipyard Scand during the 1980s–1990s. Measuring 9.60 meters in length and 3.60 meters in beam, this model combines strength, generous space, and excellent adaptability to Nordic conditions.
Inside, the layout is designed for comfort, featuring two welcoming cabins that can accommodate four to six people. In addition, the saloon easily converts into an extra berth, perfect for hosting occasional guests.
The galley is fully equipped with a gas hob, gas oven, 12V refrigerator, and microwave—ideal for both multi-day cruises and year-round living aboard. A bathroom with WC, sink, and shower completes the interior space. For added comfort, reversible air conditioning ensures a pleasant atmosphere on board in every season.
